On Monday 10/12/2018, a lecture was organized in the college for the students regarding the recruitment process in Army, Navy and Police Force. On this occasion Mr. Dareshwar Chowgule was the lecturer. On this occasion, the principal of the college T.Y. Kamble Sir welcomed the keynote speakers. Giving guidance, Mr. Chowgule said that in today's modern era, a large number of students are struggling to get a job. Therefore, the competition between them is equally increased. Immediately after 12th education, students turn to Police, Navy and Army for employment. As they do not have initial knowledge of the recruitment process in this field, they lag behind. The recruitment process in this field is very simple and it consists of field, written and interview examination. Mr. Chaugule guided the students in a detailed way regarding the recruitment process in this field. The faculty and staff attended the lecture.

A special online lecture was organized on the occasion of death anniversary of Lokmanya Bagangadhar Tilak and birth anniversary of Lokshahir Annabhau Sathe on 1st August at College of Arts and Sciences Sawarde on the occasion of the Amritmahotsav of Indian Independence. Dr. Prof. Vikas Yelmar as the main lecturer of this program was awarded. Addressing the audience, Prof. Yelmar said that Lokmanya Tilak was such a great leader that he tried to keep the British on edge against the tyranny and injustice of the British tyranny through his newspaper Maratha and Kesari as well as in real terms. He was a great social reformer. "Swaraj is my birthright and I will get it" by inculcating the feeling in the people that he became 'popular'. He was also a true revolutionary, Indian fighter, teacher and lawyer. Speaking on the work of democrat Annabhau, Prof. Yelmar said that Annabhau was a Vyasangi scholar, an enlightener, a social reformer and also a great writer who wrote on different literary genres such as narrative novel, folk drama, drama screenplay, lavani, powade and travelogue. Annabhau Sathe has done the greatest work of writing the realistic pains of the downtrodden laborers and untouchables. Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj, Mahatma Phule, Shahu Maharaj and Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar were influenced by egalitarian social reformers. He advocated equality and scientism for social change. The contribution of democrat Annabhau Sathe is also unparalleled in the United Maharashtra movement. Prof. Yelmar said that due to his fearless style of language and writing, he became famous not only in India but also in the world and therefore the young generation of today needs to imbibe the thoughts of these great social reformers and make them creative. Principal of the college TY Kamble sir, faculty, staff and majority of the students attended this program. Introductory Prof. Sunil Javeer and Prof. Sanket Kurane gave vote of thanks.

Mrs. Anujaraje Bhosle gave a lecture to the audience on the occasion of Rajmata Jijau Bhosle and Swami Vivekananda Jayanti in the college on January 12, 2022. She said that parents should take the role model of how to make their children cultured from Rajmata Jijau. He created a child from his teachings. And from the teachings of his parents, that child created an ideal Swaraj. That child's name was Chhatrapati Shivaji. Many learned great men were born in our country. One of them is Swami Vivekananda. He showed the excellence of his Indian culture to the whole world. She further said that today's young generation should respect their culture. But the youth should work for the national interest. Everyone should understand that today's young generation is the future of the country and they should devote themselves to the work of national service. And so Swami Vivekananda says wake up, wake up! Struggle, and don't stop until the goal is achieved. The program was attended by the principal of the college TY Kamble, Dr. Deepti Shembekar, Prof. Jaisingh Chavare, Prof. Sanket Kurane, Prof. Sunil Javier Prof. Anushka Kajrolkar, Prof. Medha Sawardekar, Prof. Tejaswini Bhandari, and students were present. Addressing the audience, Prof. Kadam said that Lokmanya Tilak was such a great leader that he tried to keep the British on edge against the tyranny and injustice of the British tyranny through his newspaper Maratha and Kesari as well as in real terms. He was a great social reformer. "Swaraj is my birthright and I will get it" by inculcating the feeling in the people that he became 'popular'. He was also a true revolutionary, Indian fighter, teacher and lawyer. Speaking on the work of democrat Annabhau, Prof. Kadam said that Annabhau was a Vyasangi scholar, an enlightener, a social reformer and also a great writer who wrote on different literary genres such as narrative novel, folk drama, drama screenplay, lavani, powade and travelogue. (03 Aug.2022)

As 'Comprehensive National Policy' is very important from the point of view of the country's security, this policy is absolutely necessary for the future of the country. This assertion was made by Hemant Mahajan while speaking on the topic of 'Country Security and Responsible Citizens' in an online special lecture series at the College of Arts and Sciences of the Sahyadri Institute of Education on the occasion of the Amrit Mahotsav of Indian Independence. On this occasion, Mahajan said that considering the increasing number of intrusions and extremists in the country, it is necessary for India to be able to stay strong and to be careful from such extremist countries. Along with India's northern border, maritime borders, defense of sea islands, India-China border, Bangladesh intrusion, and China's Maoism are the challenges that make India weak. We can face such challenges only by working together with the help of all the three armed forces and strengthening the strength of the military and intelligence agencies. He further said that the most important task of the rulers of the country is to protect the common people and for that, it is the need of the time to empower the police system to maintain law and order. The online program was attended by a large number of faculty, staff and students. Principal of the college TY Kamble sir welcomed and introduced the chief guests and thanks Prof. Chavere Sir believed.

Report

(11/ 08/ 2022)

On 11th August 2022 to college students through Google Meet Dr. Bharat Patankar, while giving online guidance on the topic "Role of Anti-government in Indian Freedom Movement" said that E.S. After the beginning of the movement of 1942, when the government system broke down in many parts of the country, the local people established anti-governments and took over the administration. Indians created their own system of government in a particular region under the control of the British government. It has to be mentioned mainly in Midnapur in Bengal, Bhagalpur in Bihar, Balasur in Orissa, Bhimavaram in Andhra. These counter-governments could not last long. In Maharashtra, the opposition government formed under the leadership of Kranti Singh Nana Patil in Satara district was particularly popular. This counter-government existed for a long time and was the only counter-government which did not respect the English power until the end. These anti-governments of Satara started with marches and demonstrations. The movement turned violent as the government resorted to lathicharge and firing. Activists went underground and organized different groups and started attacking government treasuries and arsenals in a disciplined manner. Kranti Singh Nana Patil was the original mastermind of this guerilla war. He systematically prepared for a long-term war with the British. Kisan Veer and Vasantdada Patil, who had escaped from jail, joined the group. Within some time Yashwantrao Chavan also came to this group. The counter-government established in Satara was also known as 'Panisarkar'. Nana Patil and his fellow oppressors used to punish moneylenders, officers and fiturs with the severe punishment of having their feet tied and beaten with a stick on their heels. Common people called this punishment 'Patri Marne'. From that this government also came to be known as 'PatriSarkar'.
